

ASPHEANET

Pharmacovigilance
European Local Contact Network

A network of partners that allows Asphalion to provide local Pharmacovigilance services throughout Europe

Qualified and validated pharmacovigilance partners

Single point of PV management throughout Europe

Standardised procedure for PV activities, including: local literature searches and ICSR management

Strong knowledge of local PV legislation and local requirements and know-how

Local PV Services

- Cell phone availability for Local Authorities
- Direct interaction with local competent authorities in pharmacovigilance and regulatory matters
- Set up of local pharmacovigilance requirements
- Local literature searches
- Periodic Agency Website screening to maintain updated client knowledge of PV local requirements
- Collaboration with client on audits and inspections
- Contact person in case of urgent safety issues from Local Authorities
- Local medical information

Advantages of having a solid network

Tailored Service: Assessment according to marketing authorisation status in each country and applicable requirements

Simplicity: Single management point of PV activities across Europe

High Quality Standards: Qualified Partners through audits, validation questionnaires, training and testing

Compliance: Strong knowledge and know-how of local pharmacovigilance activities and Competent Authorities preferences